A Special Gifts Appeal to Extend the Ministry of FLBC

You Are Invited:

Flathead Lutheran Bible Camp respectfully invites you to participate in an exciting and vital project in the life of the camp. As we come together, to join our gifts in this dream of grace-filled welcome and create a new cabin, FLBC will be able to live more fully into its mission. It is a Place to Call Home.

THE STORY

A Place to Call Home

From all corners of Montana and even farther still, campers, guests and staff come to FLBC and call this special place 'home.' Laughter rings through the trees as young campers gather in family groups to learn, grow and have fun. Retreat guests enjoy rest and renewal in this home away from home. This is what we do: create a place apart where people can experience Christ's grace through meaningful relationships, shared adventures, and purposeful service. Many people call FLBC their home-away-from-home and experience grace-filled hospitality. This is a story about extending that hospitality to welcome more campers into the FLBC family.

In order to provide safe and appropriate lodging, new cabins are needed for year-round accessibility for people of all abilities. After years of dreaming, now is the time to provide a new home away from home at FLBC. Thanks to a generous, initial gift of $25,000 by Miles Edward Burd in 2005, we have an opportunity to join in making this cabin a reality. Mr. Burd passed away in 2015 and others have contributed in his honor to make this cabin possible. The Galata Cabin is the name of one cabin, celebrating the rich and faithful history of people from Galata, MT.

Careful planning of the cabin complex will accommodate campers of all ages and abilities. Little ones at family camp, children at summer camp, adult learning retreats and senior gatherings will all enjoy this special place and experience a grace-filled welcome and call it home.

Prayerfully consider a gift to help us build this 'home,' this cabin, where guests, staff, and campers will all experience God's love and grace...at home at FLBC.

Please make your gift using the Statement of Intent Form.
Thank you for your partnership in this ministry.
