Adult Education / Spirituality Retreat

Faith, Families, and the Future of the Church in a Secular Age

May 1-3, 2022 (Sun – Tues)
Cost: $225/person (entire event)
Monday only: $175

Non-refundable $75 deposit due by April 18th 2022

This retreat is for all adults: Pastors, LPA's, Lay people, youth workers!

Join us for this special retreat with Dr. Andrew Root, professor of youth and family ministry at Luther Seminary, will be our presenter. Expect insightful sessions such as "Why are People Leaving the Church? Mis-Diagnosing Our Challenges in a Secular Age," "Ministry Inside the Immanent Frame: The Task of Speaking of God in a Secular Age," "Families, the Good Life, the Need for a Story," and "Why We're All So Exhausted: The Church in a Time of Crisis." and time for fun and relaxation at camp, too - quiet time, reading time, worship, hikes, pottery, and great food.

About the Retreat Leader!
Andrew writes and researches in areas of theology, ministry, culture and younger generations. Some of his most recent books include The Congregation in a Secular Age (Baker, 2022), The End of Youth Ministry? (Baker, 2020), and Exploding Stars, Dead Dinosaurs, and Zombies: Youth Ministry in the Age of Science (Fortress Press, 2018), and many more.

Scholarships are available! CEU credits available through Northern Rockies Institute of Theology (NRIT).
Retreat begins with dinner at 6:15pm on Sunday (check-in is from 5–6pm) and ends with lunch on Tuesday.
