

Adult Spirituality Retreat

Join Rev. Jeff Barrow and all of us at FLBC to explore the topic of "Call" and what it means to be called in our vocation. We will be spending time talking about vocation, centering on Martin Luther's works on vocation, looking at call stories in the Bible and talking about our own sense of what it mean to be called in this world.

In addition to worship and sessions with Jeff, you will have time for relaxing, canoeing, hiking, and Sauna time! Join us for a wonderful April get away!

CEU Credits available

Open to all adults, 21 and over. Clergy, LPA's, and Lay people. A great retreat for church council members to explore their call to serve in their daily life and mission and their role in the church.

Jeff Barrow is a retired ELCA pastor currently serving as Transition Pastor at Lutheran Church of the Good Shepherd in Minneapolis.

Since retiring as Bishop off the Greater Milwaukee Synod in 2016 he has served interim positions within the Lutheran Outdoor Ministry network, serving at Camp Amnicon, Sugar Creek Bible Camp, Lake Wapogasset Lutheran Bible Camp in Wisconsin, Good Earth Village in Minnesota and Mount Cross Ministries in California.

Outdoor ministry has always been big part of ministry... both as a parish pastor and as a camp director. He has served congregations in Cuero, Texas, Milwaukee Wisconsin, where he also directed Camp Indian Sands, was Executive Director at Koinonia in New York, and Racine Wisconsin where he was Senior Pastor at Holy Communion Lutheran Church prior to his election as Bishop.
